EXAMS

Exams are offered in Ballet & Tap

At UCANDANCE, we are passionate about celebrating every dancer's journey – We warmly encourage students to participate in their 2026 ATOD Dance Examinations.

Bring along your YOU CAN mindset and get ready to be recognised, rewarded, and celebrated for your dedication, progress, and love of dance.

As an accredited Australian Teachers of Dancing (ATOD) studio, we are committed to providing not only a fun and expressive environment, but also a structured, professional dance education.

In August, we welcome a visiting Interstate ATOD examiner to our studio. This is a supportive and exciting opportunity where students perform their syllabus work as a group. The examiner is always encouraging and strives to make the experience positive, personal, and confidence-building.

We believe dance exams should feel empowering and uplifting, which is why we treat exam day as a true celebration.

DANCE UNIFORMS

We take pride in our appearance at UCANDANCE. This is to help us feel like a dancer, move freely, safely and to promote being a part of our TEAM. Wearing the correct attire is important to ensure that the dancers body alignment can be seen, and safe corrections can be given by teachers. Attention should be given to grooming, etiquette and presentation. Uniform & hair requirements are compulsory across all classes and age groups.

Please see our uniform guide for all information on uniforms & shoes, including where and how to purchase.

DANCE UNIFORM GUIDE

DANCE HAIR

Hair should be in the UCANDANCE parted bun, for all classes, other than hip hop. If a student is coming for a hip hop class only, a pony tail is also an option.
